Zoning Hearing Board Information and Checklist

- Filing Fee: Per current Fee Resolution and is non-refundable.
- A completed application. Please be careful in checking the appropriate request (i.e. if you are seeking a variance, do not check the box for a Special Exception). With the original application you must also submit 5 complete copies of the application along with any attachments.
- If the applicant is not the owner, a notarized authorization must be provided.
- List of all property owners, including their (Complete) mailing addresses within 200 feet of your property in all directions (from the perimeter of the property—see Part V of the Application). (This is not necessarily the address of the property but the address of the owner of the property)
- Copy of the denial letter, if applicable.
- IF you are requesting a Special Exception or Conditional Use, in addition to completing Part IV of the Application:
 - Refer to the list of standards and criteria specific to the Special Exception or Conditional Use you are requesting, as well as the list of criteria general to ALL Special Exceptions and Conditional Uses.
 - Prepare a written response for each standard and criteria listed.
- A copy of your survey (if applicable) and drawings with adequate detail to show the Zoning Hearing Board what you wish to do, (i.e. show exact distances to property lines on the drawings). Six copies are required.
- Pictures can be helpful - showing existing conditions.

Your hearing is a legal proceeding and you may wish to obtain help from other individuals familiar with Zoning Hearing Board proceedings.

Please note that the Zoning Hearing Board does not have regular meetings. Hearings are only scheduled on an “as needed” basis after an application has been received. Due to legal requirements, please allow six (6) to eight (8) weeks for a hearing to be scheduled.
