Fire District Update

1. The Fire District Auxiliary held their first craft show for several years. They had a large turnout and are planning another one for later this year.
2. The Fire District assisted with several public events, one at the American Legion Easter Egg Hunt.
3. The Fire District responded to multiple weather-related calls on the first weekend of April. In total, they handled approximately 50 calls for service.

Emergency Services Update

- The Director of Emergency Services participated in the monthly EMA training at Butler County Emergency Services. He was awarded his PEMA Basic Emergency Management Certification.

- The Director is working to update the website with an "After the Fire" resources page to aid residents in navigating the requirements following a fire.

- The Director is working as part of the County Fire Chief's association to work to educate county and local officials on the needs of the Fire Service. Additionally, the Fire Chief's association is looking to rebuild the Fire School weekend and bring in more outside, real-world training.
