Fire District Update

1. The Fire District held their annual Sportsman Bash, with this year being another successful event. Many community agencies assisted with the event.

2. The Fire District attended mutual aid training with Stations 13 (Prospect) and 33 (Slippery Rock) for Heavy Vehicle Extrication Training.

3. The Fire District assisted with Tornado Tuff Run course preparation by wetting down several obstacles for the course.

4. The Fire District continues to bring in new members for the Stipend program, and there has been improvement to the staffing levels associated with the program.

Emergency Services Update

- The Director coordinated a meeting between the Fire District's and the Township to develop and implement a service agreement as recommended by the Strategic Plan.

- The Director Presented at Life Steps annual Staff Training. The Director and City Fire Chief presented to over 1000 staff and the Director delivered the same presentation to the staff at Benbrook Place.

- The Director met with the new Fire Chief of Plant Protection at Cleveland Cliffs, along with the City Chief and the VA chief to discuss training and responses into the mill.

- The Director attended the Western PA Career Chief's Association quarterly meeting hosted in Cranberry Township. The educational component of the meeting discussed the evolving best practices for Lithium Ion Battery Fires, best tactics for firefighting operations, and the emerging threats associated with Lithium Ion Batteries.

- The Director met with the Principles of Northwest Elementary and Mcquistion Elementary to discuss the upcoming Fire Safety Coloring Contest, as other Fire Safety practices.
