Fire District Update

1. The Fire District started the first reading of their new Bylaws completed by Delta Development.

2. The Fire District continues to sell tickets for the annual Sportsman's Bash. Tickets are still available.

3. The Fire District is cosponsoring a Training Event in June, in memory of Bill Voegler, who was a well known instructor and firefighter in Butler County.

4. The Fire District participated in "Reading with Responders" day at Mcquistion Elementary.

Emergency Services Update

- The Director participated at the Reading with responders at Mcquistion Elementary.

- The Director continues to finalize the operational policies for the Fire District. They are being reviewed by the Line Officers and will be implemented concurrently with the Fire District's Administrative Policies.

- The Director is continuing to develop and refine the Inspection and Community Connect Module of the reporting software. This will enable and enhance the Director and Fire Districts to get the most current information about target hazards in the community.

- The Director attended the Western PA Career Chief's Association quarterly conference at MSA, where we learned about the different layers, materials and technology in the Firefighting PPE.

- The Director met with the Deputy Fire Chief to discuss optimizing the Fire District's Stipend Program.
